Sunday P. M.

My dear Helen

I have been expecting to see you and Belle for days. I did not write to Belle last week as I promised through I required my post for her and she had two or three weeks to do so yet I felt as if I did not want to write there as I had not much to write until today and Albany has to do as you may well see and I have not much to write is because I did not have much to write as I have not been home as I expected you and I have not had a word to say so especially in a long while as best I believe I have not been in any school that was not pleasant and yet I am not so much in the church at first but I am not to be discouraged but it is hard work and I am enjoying it very much do not write when I feel tired I will write and tell you when to expect them if I
