Dear Love I have a few moments time which I know of no better way of wasting than by writing to you. I wrote just a few words on Sunday and would have written more had time permitted. I believe I told you then that I should probably have home during the present week. I have not yet left & may not this week, though I consider it most likely that I shall go soon. If I do not go as a soldier I mean to make arrangements to go as the correspondent of some

I was most highly pleased with your letter of Sunday.
You are indeed a dear love to write me such a good sweet letter. You see I have complied with your wish & written to your young friend and put a word to you in the letter. I am really pleased with the idea of your going to & staying at Mrs G's next year. I do hope you will I know it will be just what you need
- just what I wish you to have. You will enjoy so very much I wrote to Milfa a day or two since and wrote your to bring out with all my crosses & beads out.
An evening love
