Dear friend I have just received your letter of the 11th and am glad to hear from you and that you are well. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I have not yet had time to go to the office and see the people. I will give you a full account when I write again. I am sure you will be glad to hear from me. I am your affectionate friend and will always remain so. I am

I have been thinking of you a great deal lately and wondering how you are getting on but I don't think I can do much for you at present. I don't think I can do much for you at present. I don't think I can do much for you at present. I don't think I can do much for you at present. I don't think I can do much for you at present.
I don't think I can do much for you at present. I don't think I can do much for you at present. I don't think I can do much for you at present. I don't think
think I can do much for you at present.
