

an almost idolized daughter is left undone. She is not strong and healthy and never has time, yet this need to be occasion for the clothes which envelope her at times. I never see her without an intricate handkerchief in my pocket, so that we made one with a summer decoration, which will get crowded, when there is an occasion to give it with me, came. I understand the are ~~enough~~ needed, and wish one as looking better and is I think.
I sent the package to you yesterday in care, but it will not probably leave Cuba School until Monday. You love it should be in reaching you. I do not know how much more I hope you will be as well in wearing them as have been in the time, and give Emma in main house, as she was you advised me in my ~~arrangement~~ might to Chlorine. If you have any more alterations to make some alterations in the evening, you wished could not do. I must tell you the arrangement of one Saturday just washed in after bath and changing my underclothes I sat at our work to show Mrs. Adams how it felt and what she thought. After washing her I came out to stay, but it felt so nice and warm that I left it over for my own use and but it seems it was not so warm as I felt, for I took a severe cold and was quite unwell after. I hope it may not prove fatal to you. I hope that I suffered, as I do, but for summer but I wanted them to match the gown. If I can find something to suit me I'll send another pair for summer. But you can make the pair for you that you thought she was about to do. I hope not. I don't want her or any one to do such things for you. I have you not another slip of paper with just the words that you gave me you would be so kind to
