Emma, I hoped to have written to you before but could not as we have been bothered round our way from the rail road. The new road is route for Crasville to help on the fight near Murfreesboro I think the church will do as well as you could wish.
I have no time to write to you dearling, for they are now getting down the tent over my head.

Good Bye
Albin
