

Panaethean Club Room,

Kingsville Academy, May 1st, 1866.

At a meeting of the Panaethean Club, held May 1st, 1866, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Angel of Death has entered our circle and removed from the Panaethean Club our much loved sister, Miss JENNIE E. KILBORN, one of its founders, and the first to place her name upon its roll—who laid aside her earthly work to receive her Heavenly crown April 16th, 1866, therefore—

Resolved, That in the death of sister Jennie this Club has lost one of its most loved and honored members, whose generous disposition and Christian character have won our highest esteem and will secure for her an enduring place in our affections,

Resolved, That, participating as we do in their deep affliction, we tender our heartfelt sympathies to her relations and friends, rejoicing that with this bereavement is mingled the consolation that, ever laboring for other's good—ever conspicuous for eminent Christian zeal—she died, as dies the Christian, in the full and complete triumphs of faith.

Resolved, That, in memory of our deceased sister the badges of this Club be draped and so worn for the remainder of the present term.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased.

In behalf of the Panaethean Club,

PROF. A. J. BARRETT,
MISS A. CHAPMAN,
GEO. F. WATERS,

Committee.

Panaethean Club Room,

Kingsville Academy, May 1st, 1866.

At a meeting of the Panaethean Club, held May 1st, 1866, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Angel of Death has entered our circle and removed from the Panaethean Club our much loved sister, Miss JENNIE E. KILBORN, one of its founders, and the first to place her name upon its roll—who laid aside her earthly work to receive her Heavenly crown April 16th, 1866, therefore—

Resolved, That in the death of sister Jennie this Club has lost one of its most loved and honored members, whose generous disposition and Christian character have won our highest esteem and will secure for her an enduring place in our affections,

Resolved, That, participating as we do in their deep affliction, we tender our heartfelt sympathies to her relations and friends, rejoicing that with this bereavement is mingled the consolation that, ever laboring for other's good—ever conspicuous for eminent Christian zeal—she died, as dies the Christian, in the full and complete triumphs of faith.

Resolved, That, in memory of our deceased sister the badges of this Club be draped and so worn for the remainder of the present term.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased.

In behalf of the Panaethean Club,

PROF. A. J. BARRETT,
MISS A. CHAPMAN,
GEO. F. WATERS,

Committee.