

Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from
you. I am well and hope these few lines
will find you the same.
I have not much news
to write at present.
The weather here is
very warm now.
I must close for this time. Write soon.
Your affectionate son,
John Smith

I have been thinking of you a great deal lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately but I will write to you again soon. I love you very much and hope to see you very soon. I am your affectionate friend,
 Mary

What shall I say about you? I regard you as a very good and kind person and I think you will be very successful in your business. I hope you will be very happy and successful
 in all your undertakings. I love you very much and hope to see you very soon. I am your affectionate
 friend,
 Mary

Dear Mother
I received your letter of the 11th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this finds you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the hospital and do not know how long I will stay here. I am getting tired of the hospital life and would like to go home very much.
I will write again when I hear from you. I love you and the children very much.
Your affectionate son,
John Doe
