Dear Wiley:

We have just finished another week and as Mr Ray is going to Danville in a few minutes I take the opportunity to send you a few lines. I have not heard a word from you or anybody except Mr Welker from whom I saw a note yesterday. I have been up nearly all night for two or three nights, writing and travelling, and am pretty tired but otherwise well. I shall try and get home next Tuesday night by the Danville train. I want to write and say a word to Mr Welker now before Mr Ray leaves. God bless you my dear friend. My heart is full of you by day and night. God keep you. God bless you. I know we will

Truly
