Raleigh N.C.

Gentlemen,

Referring to your communication of Jan'y 30th, I am instructed by the Commanding General to state, that applications for Special Orders, staying proceedings in individual cases, where no provisions exist in General Orders, authorizing the same, have uniformly been refused at these Headquarters, as inconsistent with that uniformity, and impartiality, due to a consistent administration of law and justice.

Your application presents no sufficient ground, for departing from so salutary a practice.

Very respectfully

Your obedt Servt
