

Henderson & Co.
July 28th 1846.

Hon A. W. Georges.

Dr Sir: I send by P. O. money Order £200, as part fee in my case, I will pay you the bal - during Court week on your arrival in Oxford, do not mention to any one how much I pay you there are a host of Democratic lawyers here anxious to appear in the case, some have volunteered their services, Col. Edwards has come to terms and is at work. Maj Littlejohn a very clever old Gentleman is assisting with Col. Warham & Mr. Horsfall. They are doing the outside work, I had them to distinctly understand that you & Col.
Edwards were to take the lead in the case, the others that have offered, I told them I thought I had sufficient Counsel. I thought "too many cooks might spoil the broth, we will knock the heels out from under Jam. Anis & Hays & Co. I mean they would know who done it, money matters are & have been very tight, but I am getting my tricks all straight in that line now you can confer with Col. Edwards about the case in any manner you choose.

I am very Respectfully
Yr O<sup>b</sup>t<sup>d</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

L. B. Cole.

P.S. Address me at Oxford I send this money from Henderson P. O. because I did not want the Oxford clique to know how much or what I was paying any body
