

Names of witnesses for the State W. S. C. B. Cole and the evidence that is expected to be proved by them.

Braxton Hunt will swear that Cole made a speech and used his influence with the Bo. of Commissioners to procure the order for Leander, and that R. D. Jones was appointed by the Board to have the work done he will further attempt to say that R. D. Jones appointed C. B. Cole to assist him in making contracts for the work, but that is all what B. Hunt heard he does not know it to his certain knowledge he never heard Jones make any bargain with Cole to assist him in making said contracts

Albert Wyche will swear the same that Hunt

J. A. Bullock will swear in regard to the interlining of the receipt by Leander he knows nothing in regard to Cole

A. J. Jones will swear to the same that J. A.
Bullock does.

J. K. Wood will swear that C. B. Cole told him to make out the account for Leander

A. Cooke will swear that he delivered the account or order to J. C. Leander in person

Witness for Defense

C. B. Cole has a certificate signed by Braxton Hunt before A. P. Eaton J. P. Dated certifying that Cole did not make a speech and say that Leansden order was just a right and did not use any means to procure the allowance of said order for Leansden Hunt since has denied the certificate Cole can prove the same by W. A. Belvin W. H. Hughes & D. E. Young

Cole can prove by G. W. Leandis M. D. that J. R. Wood was ~~was~~ bordering upon an attack of Delerium Tremens at the time Leansdens account was allowed by the County Commission and a few days after he had a severe attack of Mania a. pota or Delerium Tremens. Wood will acknowledge the same on the stand if questioned. Wood has further said that he was so drunk at the time that he made out Les act. ~~that he is not certain whether Cole told him the act to make it for or not.~~ These witnesses are ^{col.} Geo. W. Thau & A. Cooke & others

Cole can prove that it is custom to have acts drawn up by rivers persons among them, A. J. Jones A. W. Cooke, W. Horsfall, Wilkins Stovall Edge and others if necessary.

Cole can prove by W. H. Wood that he ^{wood} saw a letter from Leamsterden to W. A. Davis and he Le, stated in said letter that he had a written agreement with Cole to do the work on the Court House but not with the Commissioners and that Le, stated in said letter that said written agreement was done away with at Le's request and that a verbal agreement was entered into to do the work and then bring up his act and charge what ~~the~~ he should think he ought to have for any time he might lose, and he further said the work was more expensive than he thought it would be Cole can prove the same by W. A. Davis Cole can prove by Andrew Williams that he did not make a speed and exert himself to get the act allowed.

I have more I will send in a few days this is written very hurriedly

A. B. L.