My Dear wife:

I have rec'd another letter from Lord's friend in Salisbury, and send it. I should hardly write at this hour, but I am afraid she will be writing back that you have moved to Erie &c. Please do not let her do that. I have suffered so much from the folly of such a course that I dread the very idea of it - I believe I hate Erie about as bad as you do N.C. - Have a little prudence in her answer to these letters anyhow, if I am not too late -

Yours

Albion
