

This Memorandum of Agreement between A. W. Tourgey and Uzzell & Wiley, all of the City of Raleigh, North Carolina: That the said Uzzell & Wiley agree to bind, for the said A. W. Tourgey, the edition of his Digest of Cited Cases, now being printed by said Uzzell & Wiley at the price of Seventy-five cents per volume, and the said Tourgey agrees to pay the same, said mutual obligations, being subject to the following conditions, to-wit: (1) That said Uzzell & Wiley shall be responsible for the preservation and security of the sheets of said work according to the statement to be rendered by them after the count of the forms, upon delivery to the binder, which statement is made a part of this instrument; (2) That the said Uzzell & Wiley, shall have bound, within one week after the printing of the last form, 100 copies, and in one week thereafter 100 more copies of said work; and shall bind the remainder, in quantities of not less than 100 copies at any one time, each installment of 100 to be delivered in ten days after receipt of the order therefor, from the said A. W. Tourgey or his agent; (3) That the said work shall be carefully bound and stitched, trimmed with as wide margins as the forms will allow, in good law sheep, lettered in gilt, upon two narrow strips on the back, as directed, so as to make in all respects a workmanlike job; (4) That in case of misarrangement or defect of forms in any volume the said Uzzell & Wiley shall not only rebind the same but pay the transportation required to return the same to the buyer; (5) That the said Tourgey shall pay or come to be paid, to the said Uzzell & Wiley the price for binding each installment of 100, upon the delivery of the last of such installment within the time limited above, to Alfred Williams & Co, of said city.

 (6) That the said Tourge shall pay to said Uzzell and Wiley the premium for fire insurance of said forms, from and after the delivery of the said forms to the printer.
