Monday 7 P.M.

My Darling,
 News of Saturday came as you expected this morning I send enclosed a letter from your father which just came. It seems dreadfully lonely without you and I am extremely anxious for you to come in any way. Mr. Meigs is very kind indeed, looks in upon us often and brings the mail at night. That unknown named young man at Stone sent me the other morning and said he sent that note you gave him to Mr. Stone and Monday had said from him telling him to come back and take his former position. That he was infinitely obliged to you for the very settlement of the difficulty. It has been a really good week for the week, except as received.
