The Wentworth Jan 25, 1870

Dear Papa,

It is Sunday and Mama is at Church. Miss Mary Dwyer is here with me.
There is here two girls and a boy, their names are Myron, Mary and Anne Miller. There is a boy here that has been sick for a long while, his name is Edward, I don't know what his other name is. This blot is a kiss. Don't you think it is mean I had to begin this letter long.

Mary Miller goes to Sunday School with me and she like it very much. Where your trunk used to be ~~but it is not in the~~ ~~letter shelf I keep my dollie~~ things and I made such a sweet little house. You wrote to Mama to ~~just me whether~~ ^{rather have} I had some thing in New York or ~~here~~ here, I had ~~rather~~ have the house here.
I am drawing a doll for a fair, the fair is for the benefit of the poor. I just lent Myron Miller my ~~Myron~~ round, he is very fond of reading. just now I saw a man with a riding suit on the coat was made of brownish yellow with beige buttons, black pants with white leggings he did look so framing. Just now I saw two big dogs as usual in the park about as big as I remember to be and the other not so large. Give my love to cousin Kate

From your loving daughter

Lois

I hope you are well as always I was
