(GOODS ENTRANCE: 24 MURRAY ST.),

New York. March 17 1880

My dear Judge
Your good long letter of the 9th came day & I have been trying day by day to answer it but haven't been able by knee deaf in manuscripts of offend books, proof of Gilman's Gospel book, of Mr Campbell's story, of K.K.K. &c (Gilman by the way has recently come down from his trip here & begged me to "cut & carve to my heart's content" as my "suggestions are admirable." I knew he liked them, for all his jawing; but was glad to have him on record again to that effect!)

The little pkg of final Chapters has just come. I haven't opened it. Shall be over all day tomorrow & will send you some papers, &

5
bore you with a few remarks, if possible the book comes on me I must confess. I am joy to say me a few things wh. I think you will approve as to the spirit of the recognizing of the work of education already begun to have extent by Armstrong to others.

I must away. It is late.

Yours truly

Wm. H. Macy
