JUDGES' CHAMBERS.

Denver, May 18th 1880

Dear Sir,
Miss Cornell, niece of Govt & Mrs Crown writes me to inquire with you for copy of your poem. "Du Plaisir Mornay". She says. "any thing written by the author of the Fool's Errand will be listened to here with great pleasure". You will perhaps remember meeting Miss Cornell during the last winter - If you can comply with her request I will be much gratified. as I am certain she and the audience will be

I am Dear Sir
