

Judge Sarge:

I heard your speech last night. It was admir-able - but I was disappointed in one part. When you deprecated the Rule of the Solid South - you failed to touch one point - & that one the vital point in my opinion - the election of Hancock will mean the sanction of fraud. The condoning of the greatest crime against Liberty ever committed - & more it will be a plain declaration that honesty whomever would be "residents must purchase the game by such means - & still worse it will break down the barriers of truth &

I have - dealing all over the world. It is this I should know than any effect on business, labor, &c. At this point seems to be overlooked by our Public Speakers - & for this reason I take the liberty of calling your attention to this point.

Recognizing in you one of those leaders who are fighting the battles of Truth & Righteousness, rather than Party

I am yours sincerely & respectfully
A

Chas. F. Smith.
