FORDS, HOWARD, & HULBERT,

No. 27 PARK PLACE.

(GOODS ENTRANCE: 24 MURRAY ST.),

New York, March 20 1881

Dear Mr. Towner

Your note is at hand.

I am glad your mind is at rest about our mutual notions on the Indian book. Of course all the help we can get will be thankfully received.

As nearly as we can get at the sales since Jan. they are about thus:

Fool.	4,872	- $100	_____	$4,872.
Fisp.	200	¢ 150	_____	3,009.
Prints.	3,622	- 150	_____	5,430.
J.E.	2,800	- 200	_____	4,604.
Domestic	61	- 100	_____	61.
				$17,979.00

Ten per cent of which is $1,797.90

I haven't gone into any "proportionate" calculations as Mr. Empire but just taken all "by & large".

Love to the Judge. Don't let him overdo.

Yours sincerely,

R. Howard

How do you think it comes do to publish "Royal Gentlemen" with a portrait of the author. As it was his first book it will be a great success.
