

...the sublime character of his mind

Geneva N.Y. Aug 7th 1882

My dear Mr. Touzée.

After a malarial chill,
and days of unconquerable weakness, this is my first letter day, and I cannot refrain from enclosing you an excerpt from the first daily I have been able to read - the "Rochester Dem & Chronicle" of 5th Inst. My heart always goes out to those I believe in, and I am so glad that you ever allowed me to be your friend.
I feel sure that I appreciate your character.
My copy of "Our Testament" I brought here to specially show several prominent friends here.

Would you please, write our "Mr Webster" for me? I have utterly been unable to write him as I proposed, after his arrival here.
Broth of course I neglected - no check sent & he needs it - Will probably be home next saturday & put matters in order. Have not been out yet - have lots of imitations.
Yours very sincerely
A. H. C. O. O.
