Dear Judge

The enclosed bill will inform you in brief that, now, we have filled your Commission for books, ~~and~~ Metz & Paper cut in Slips.

We did not take the Baker Book's offer of $140 because we found that another person had purchased the same thing only second hand (good order) for $130, & the extra $10 for the new 1884 Edition of Bonnier.
So we have tried to spare your interests.

Of course we send the bill merely for your information, & don't look for the money until the time you have ket, Jan 1.
May it find you out
lots!
Yours always,
J. H. F.
