DIVISION.

Department of the Interior,

PENSION OFFICE,

Binghamton N.Y. 10/13, 1886

Dear Judge

Yours of 8th inst. addressed to Sawyer is just now rec'd.

I can let you have $200. Tell me how you want the draft - to your order or to whomever.

If I should get bounced for it when I get bounced I shall want it & I know you will get it for me.

You can make a note for one year with lawful int. if I don't want it till maturity all right, if I do I'll whisper to you.

By George! Judge you ought to have been with me on my little "lake" up in Maine this Summer. I was out in a camp 9 miles from any where, on the banks of a beautiful lake shut in by mountains, where at night no sound was heard save

Draft direct to the bank.
This is all the envelop I have.

BRIEF:

No. of Inclosures _____

the cry of the loon and the cressin of the quader Trout's guess, not! And landlocked salmon!!! - Well I never had such fishing - and it was pretty poor they said At another lake the fishing is bad Cos you cant get ~~any~~ ^{any} ~~enough~~ ^{enough} you catch all you want before you get half through.
 Now then next Summer if I can get there, + the harness laps about an appreciable unit of that sum you need some trout as you wish come up + I'll show you you only have seen in dreams.

Oh me know about the dead I'll send. But write soon now. Supper is ready + I'm off on my way. Love to all I'll send
