

D. LOTHROP & COMPANY,
PUBLISHERS.

BOSTON.

Feb 18

1887

A. W. Turgie,

Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir: Yours of Feb. 16th at hand.
We have never let a book of ours
go off our list to be taken by another publisher, and do not care to begin
now, but we should have no objection to letting you have the use of the plates, at a fair price, should you
at any time wish to make a uniform edition of your writings.
Let us know if this arrangement will be satisfactory. It seems to us to fully cover the possibility you anticipate.

Very truly yours

D. Lothrop & Co.
P. M. A.