

S. S. McCLURE,
TRIBUNE BUILDING,
NEW YORK, N. Y.

CABLE ADDRESS,
"AIDDECAMP, NEW YORK."

Feb. 18, 1887.

My dear Mrs. Tourgee,

Your letter emphasizes to me a very important matter. I shall at once act upon your suggestions and shall publish the opinion of an expert, Judge Tourgee's letter which you have so kindly sent me.

I have read the short story which you sent me from the Jamestown Journal. Simply for the sake of having Judge Tourgee's name among my list of contributors of short stories, I will violate a rule and republish this. As it has been published before, it is of little money value to me, but I will send you $50.00 for it. I will use it in March or April.

Very truly yours,

S. S. McClure