GEORGE L. LEWIS. ADELBERT MOOT.

Feb - 24 - 1887

My dear Mrs. Touger -

Let me first thank you for the Jamestown Journal and the article upon our coming Constitutional Convention; also for the Chicago I. O. and the article by Veteran upon Logan - The editor is right; it is an elegant tribute, I have much enjoyed a little work by that name & the comparison of Lee and Jackson in particular could not be more subtle, fine, or just to my mind; altho I had not thought of the subject in that light before.

I have just written your husband a hasty letter in answer to a late one of his own. Tell him it is my candid opinion aside from business, do not let the judge overwork, I am called a hard worker but do not compare with him. Come down with him and have a little fun and rest.

Hastily your friend,
Adelbert Moot
