

D. LOTHROP & COMPANY,
PUBLISHERS,

BOSTON,

Mar 1

1887

Judge A. N. Torrey:

Dear Sir, Yours of Feb. 25 at hand.
We cannot consent to your stipulations in regard to control of the book after three years and if you do not feel satisfied to let us take the book without this, and the other two requirements you make in your letter, we shall prefer to terminate the negotiation.

Let us say however, that we should be very glad to take your book without the stipulations you make.

Very truly yours

D. Lothrop Company
publ.