Harrington

Barren N. Y. March 2. 1889.

My Dear Sir;

I was pained to learn of your telegram Monday morning to the Ladies here, because of your misfortune and our loss thereby.

I trust your illness will not be serious, that you will be able soon to come to Barren, and that the invitation to our house and its acceptance, will be understood to be subject to no statute of limitations.

Yours Fraternally
Augustus Harrington
