THE BANK OF EL DORADO.

El Dorado, Kansas, March 7th 1887

Judge Gorse

Dear Colonel

A. M. Fisher, offered me today for your land $900.⁰⁰ Cash. I told him that it could not be bought for less than $1000.⁰⁰ I refer the matter to you for decision. I did not agree that you would take $1000.⁰⁰ dollars, but let you decide the case yourself. Advise me promptly, what I shall do in the premises

Very respectfully

Alfred W. Elders

P.S.

South East of 3-23-7 I think this is your land - there is a wild excitement about lands in this part of Kansas. I am taking advantage of it to unload my own but you must decide respecting yours.
