

D. C. Heath & Co.,

Publishers and Importers of Text Books

*16 Astor Place, New York.
185 Wabash Avenue, Chicago.*

for Schools and Colleges, 3 Tremont Place,

Boston, March 8, 1887

Mr. A. W. Tourgee

Mayville, N. Y.,

Dear Sir,

It is very evident that the bill for the Citizen should not have gone to you. It was intended only for members of the A.I.C. who had not paid their fees. The mistake arose through the fact that the Citizen has been edited and the wrappers addressed outside of our office, and as the editor has also been the Pres't of the A.I.C. and has known that but 250 gift copies were by our contract to be furnished naturally concluded the list to whom the paper had been sent was for the most part a bona fida list. Kindly consider we have no bill against you and we regret exceedingly that you should have got the statement sent.

Very Truly Yours,

