

AMERICAN SOCIAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION.

Concord Mass March 29 1887

Dear Madam:

In answer to your note of the 18th, I must say that there is no very good factory engraving of John Brown, either
of those in my book
are so, nor are there copies of them with a good margin. The best photograph now available is a large one made at the expense of Jay Cooke some ten years since, which John
Brown Jr. Putnam Boy Island, also has a copy. It was from a reproduced copy of this that the bearded

supra in my
book was taken.
If you could get a good carbon photograph or heliotype
of this it would be the best gift to your husband.

There is also a good head in the Century magazine,
from which prof-
copies might perhaps be taken.

Very truly yours
H. B. Swabner
