

177 Washington St.

Brooklyn, Apr 11, 1887.

My dear Sir,

Many thanks for your very great courtesy. I do not think I could agree with you in your view.

But, I want to tell you how much pleasure you have given me in reading your "Fools Ground." I think the ride on young "Lolland," of the glorious job, and the "Chariot Race" in Ben Hur, are the two finest descriptions I have ever read.

I am an invalid from paralysis. I intend to go up to Saratoga, 131 Phila St. next month, if alive & usually well, & if you come there should be pleased to see you. You would find Mr Van
- derburgh, a good place to board, - $10 a week, in July & Aug.

With kind regards

Yours truly

Wm A. Briggs
