Hon. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir:- You probably remember my name in connection with the telegraphing correspondence last year when you came from Indiana, to Clearfield and while I listened to your lecture and enjoyed it very much I did not have the pleasure of meeting you personally. I presume you are already connected with more Bureaus than you care to be and an application from us, for your name, may not meet your favor. We do a "small" but very respectable business, always handle the very best talent and make the Pennsylvania Institutes a Specialty. We have had Col. Conwell and Col. Bain with us for two years and we take pleasure in referring you to them for information as to our methods of doing business. We take our men and set them engagements at their established prices and charge 10 percent of the proceeds of each lecture for our services. We pay all the expenses of postage and stationery but charge for the printing of the advertising circulars or prefer to have our men have them printed under their own supervision and furnish them to us with the address of our Agency printed on them. If you care to correspond with us further on the matter of adding your name to our list this season we shall be glad to hear from you and think we can get you many engagements in our County Institute Courses which are among the best as you know. Awaiting your pleasure I am, ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~

Yours Truly,

M. L. McQuown,
Manager,
