Dictated.

Chicago, April 21st, 1887

Mrs. E. K. Tourgee,

Mayville,

New York.

Dear Mrs. Tourgee:-

I send with this the transfer of the copyright of "Button's Inn" executed in accordance with the directions of your letter of April 8th. As a consideration for this transfer I will expect to receive a copy of the story in book form with an autograph of the author and if photographs of the family should accompany the book the Busbey household would be greatly pleased. The other matters mentioned in your letter have been referred to Mr. Nixon. I have no doubt "Button's Inn" will be a very popular story and I think The Inter Ocean will be able to handle a good many of them.

Very Sincerely,

Wm. W. Busbey
