DAVID DUDLEY FIELD,
Washington Building, No. 1 Broadway,
Entrance at Room 142. Sixth Floor.

New York, Sept. 26th 1882

My dear Sir,

I hope you have not forgotten me, as I have not forgotten you. You are, I think, a fine behaviorist in legislation & in my code. It, too, is the best code, in view of the Senate, having passed the assembly.

We need them very soon we can get. There are two ^{two} ~~three~~ senators from your part of the State, whom you may be able to furnish.

that the public interest would be subserved by its passage - I move, Resolved, & Carried - The other senators, Mr. Miller, is also voting in its favor.

If you would like to see this code passed, & passed now, will you do the public a service the favor to write to the two senators mentioned?

I make no apology for thus troubling you, because the Code is a public matter & deserves the attention of every conscientious citizen -
Very truly,
C. -

Edw. B. Smith

R. B. Downer
