12th May 1889.

My dear Judge — In doubt as to what part of the earth is blessed with your presence nowadays I thought I would send this to your home expecting that it will reach you in due time — if not sooner — When are you any how & do you expect to be in this locality at any time in the near future?
If so you must camp in this punch & then we can speak of many things — Have you given any further thought to the features matter of which we spoke together in Dec-at the Grand Pacific — Let me hear from you at your convenience — I bought a book some time ago & wrote you have it.
I'll forward it as soon as I can lay my hands on it. It is called the Divine Malignity & by Rev. Miller Hagaman. It is a horrible title but it is a strong poem — did you ever see it? Heartily yours — Geo. W. Younger      Jas. Tanner.
