Dictated.

Hon. A.W.Tourgee,

Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir; Enclosed find draft for $50. in payment of last letter, for which you will please sign and return enclosed receipt.

In this connection allow us to call attention to the fact that whoever answered Dr. Fry's letter relative to the missing ~~letter~~ MS. makes a bad case for the Mayville end, in saying that the clerk at Mayville distinctly remembers that there were two envelopes, and the only two long envelopes in the mail that day. Now, of course, the truth is, there ought to have been three, one for the paper at Cincinnati, and one each ~~two~~ for Chicago and St Louis. Our St Louis editor who was left out, was quite indignant, and we trust that great care will be taken, as we have no doubt there will be, to prevent a repetition of this disappointment.

Yours Truly,

Arthur Sewall & Co. Bath Me.

Saturday was it has been done without a friend. Neither the writer nor the Mayville at the same time because two envelopes the other three off on Chicago

But whilemen the arrange ment Dr Fry should have presumed that it — or whomever wrote to him — would of course out a line on good behaving for the Marseilles ends "would have told the truth. This is what the Mayville end seems to do. It may not be good at excuses but it can tell the truth as easily and often and it is better compliments as any one in the "commercial" whether minister or layman.

Sincerely

not "malignant"; but having been called to manage many other work of the kind, not wanting any such imputation of Dr Fry, but rather an unfairness, would be disappointed by him in the premises as will each hotel may pens when they are made.

Sincerely

Gentlemen:
