

Worcester May 23 1887.

Dear Judge

Since writing you late Saturday night last, I received an Associates Press dispatch from Chicago to the effect that Mr. Adams had by telegraph invited Mr. Amies to a conference at Bar Harbor, but the invitation was declined.

I also stated that it was for the purpose of arranging with Mr. L. to take the place of Vice Pres. upon the Ticket with Mr. B.

Before this you will have discovered the fact that I was weary when closing my letter night before last, in fact I was by the duties of the work in Comb room out.

I am the honor to be, as ever

Yours truly

A. N. Tompkins

Worcester Mass.

Yours faithfully

J. W. P. P. P.
