Dear Mr. Torque

Dear Sir - Acknowledging yours of 14th inst in by to say that the statement made that we were sold out of your size in receipt of orders but that desirous of serving you we proposed buying the shirts elsewhere and passing them to you at the actual price we would be obliged to pay for them in the market - when coupled with your many years experience in dealing with us, should we most certainly judge have had anything but a suspicion of the "peculiar".

We send the shirts by reg^d mail today & enclose memo of postage in package

My Reply Yours,

S. M. Wanamaker & Co.
