

"There must be an international copyright arrangement. England has done her part, and I am confident the time is not far distant when America will do hers. It becomes the character of a great country, firstly, because it is justice; secondly, because without it you never can have, and keep, a literature of your own." — CHARLES DICKENS (from a Speech).

BOSTON, Aug 16 1887.

Dear Madam

We should like
very much to bring out
"Buttons Pan" on the first of Sept, but the printer
says he can do nothing more because he is waiting for final revisions.

Very truly

Robert P. W.
