Madison Aug 22 1857.

Dear Judge Tully

The Leader of today is an hour containing your article, and brief comments appearing editorially.

The delay in its appearance comes from Mr. Coates illness, and his comments I have no doubt for change a little, and I will tell you why.

Ben Brown of, if you do not know R. C. Parsons of Cleveland, he is a great Sherman man, is a stockholder in the Leader, and is afraid of his shadow, then fear is not of the Leader should go in too strong Sherman would talk and leave the truth, and Coates and I

man of opinion that Sherman should stay on at least while public opinion is settling upon Lincoln, and his own team stand his work
al.

Is there not force in this view? - I wish your opinion.
But this will tell me if you could give me one of the Continents like those of Lincoln's position in 1862.

Hastily
Yrs faithfully
Lotts,

Our favorite Republican is out this morning from Lincoln which I will send you.
