Madame Aug. 24 1887

My Dear Madam,

In reply to your esteemed note of to-day permit me to say that I supposed the Judge had been supplied with the Letter, and some extra copies as well, and can only account for the failure by the indisposition of Mr Cowles, and not being at the office and giving the necessary direction. I will by the morning mail send him one copy of Monday issue, and will write the Letter over to mail him 15 or 20 more.

Of the Inter Ocean article I must write in answer to your note, as I write the Judge hastily to day with reference to it.

With great Respect,

Mrs Emma Torrey

Yours Faithfully,

S. Newton Pettis
