In reply to yours of

Dear Sir:- I have been making up a course at Norristown, Pa., for week ending Nov. 5th, 1887 and have an offer for five of our men with yourself. The amount agreed upon is $270- & "Locals" this brings you to $70- & "Locals" In filling the course I was compelled to place my $50 men at $40 and my $75- men at $70- Yourself and Dr. Willits are the strong men in the course. I will say to you that there was no "Jewing", but they offered me $270 for Willits, Tourgee, Miller, Sanford & von Boyle- Sanford was reduced from $60 to $50 and in distributing the reduction I made an equitable discount on each and if I can get another date same week for Willits I will make your rate $75- Your night is Thursday Nov. 3rd. 1887, Subject "Give us a Rest". If you approve this write on postal "approved"- Have written to Doyelstown this P.M. in the hope of placing you there same week.

Yours very Truly,

M. L. McQuown,
