In reply to yours of Yesterday permit me to say that I can hardly see how any change can be made, although we will try and bring it about. Supt. Smith in answer to telegram sent on receipt of your letter stated O.K. if you can please give me Tuesday night. I do not now like to ask him to change when I wrote him that we would give Tuesday night at $75- & 'Locals' and he has asked particularly for that night. I could change you at Norristown so that you could give Conn, Thursday night were it not that Willits, who I would have to shift from

Wednesday night to Thursday night, must get to his home in Louisville, Ky-for Church services on Sunday and I presume would complain if I were to give a later date than Wednesday night. Miller, who is to be at Norristown on Tuesday the 1st. of Nov. is to be at West Chester, New 3rd. and I cannot change him. I will write to day and ask the Supt. if he would care to have you on Friday night and take VonBoyle on Thursday night and if he consents to this we can make the change at Norristown and let Media have Nov. 1st. Could you not arrange with the people at Middleton to take Wednesday Nov. 2nd.? This would work well start at Media go from there to Conn-and then back to Norristown for Thursday night. I will see if I can place you at Norristown on Friday but am afraid it will not win.

Yours Truly,

M. L. McGuown -

I wrote to Miss Hunter yesterday -
