 Rev. A. W. Dodge.
 Mayville N.Y.

Dear Sir:

I see you are booked for the lecture field Glorious! Now why can't we Jamestownites be benefited by your vocal efficiency as well as the rest of the world. I am sure no one would delight in such a privilege more than I.

After Oct 1 we expect to recon-stitute our church. We shall then have one of the handsomest interiors in the state and if we can arrange for it I for one should delight to have you tune its walls to the voice of Eloquence.

If your agent will message with me I'll try to arrange it if possible.

O, by the way, how thank your joyous Muse that carried you safely and without "suicide" through "Dutton's Den" (to whom success, all hail!)

Could you find a moment of leisure in which to review my little book of rhymes - The Skeledan and the Rari and give me the benefit of your opinion of it? In a few weeks I desire to collect a large number of notices (personal and press) I may publish them in a circular for the use of my Publishers - who request it. Wishing for you continued good health,
Very truly yrs
Henry Grant.
