Dr. T. L. Flood, Editor and Proprietor.

MEADVILLE, PA.

Sept. 8, 1887.

Dear Mr Skinner,

Your letter of the 5th inst received. The provisions of my contract with the Chautauqua Trustees are such as cause me to say - I cannot accept your proposition to sell Judge Souzge's book. It would afford me pleasure to accommodate you & assist the judge but duty comes in to banish the pleasure.

Truf yours

T. L. Flood,
