Hon. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir; Replying to yours of the 7th inst we have to state that we have referred the matter of your advertising to our advertising agent who will communicate with you regarding the same.

As to the time of printing "Letters To A King" we have to state that Dr. Cranston is absent attending conferences in the west, and will not return for some ten days. In his absence we are not advised as to the publication of the above letters, hence must await his return, when the matter will receive prompt attention.

Yours Truly,

Cranston & Stowe.

John
