Judge A. W. Tougee,
Dear Sir:- We are publishing simultaneously in a select syndicate of leading papers, a notable series of articles by eminent men and women of the day. Among those from whom we have articles on hand or in preparation for this series are Dr. Wm. A. Hammond, Gov. Fitzhugh Lee, Mrs. Rose E. Cleveland, Dr. J. P. Parker of London (published yesterday) Mrs. Geo. Jackson Curtis, Mrs. John A. Logan, Gen. A. W. Green, Mr. Dea Bonercault, Prof. Thos. A. Edison, "Jenny June", Mr. J. Jefferson, Mrs. Ella Whelan Welch, and many others equally prominent. The character of our syndicate you can see by the following samples of the papers;

Ny World, Phila Press, Balto Herald, Chicago Herald, Boston Post, San Francisco Chronicle, St Louis Globe, Detroit Tribune, Pittsburgh Dispatch &c &c.

We are very desirous of having you represented by an article in this series at your earliest convenience, and a subject that would have special weight for you for would be "Practical Advice to Literary Aspirants". If however you have any other subject in mind it would be acceptable. Our articles are short, averaging about 1400 words. and in regard to terms we pay high class magazine rates.

Kindly take the matter into consideration and let me know your decision, and if favorable, your terms and about the time we may expect ms.

Very Respectfully Yours
Chas. H. Brown Ed.
