LAW OFFICE
OF
THOMAS B. KEOGH.

Greensboro, N.C., Sept 15 1887

Mrs. A. W. Torrey

Dear Madam

Yours of the 7th came to hand while I was away on a short trip. I regret you do not get the State regularly. I am sure it is not the fault of the office.

I rec'd the Judge's letter and was at a loss to know whether I was at liberty to rec it. I will do it now. There are many warm friends of him in the State who will be glad to see anything from him. "The Veteran and the Pope" never came to me. I saw a notice of "Butler's Iron" before I received your letter.
Hattie and the girls are well

My wife says she would give anything for a visit with you - The loss of her father has depressed her very much.

Tom is now an assistant civil engineer on construction of a rail road in S. C. He has determined on rail road as his future -

Greenboro is not much changed except in population. The deaths among the old citizens during 12 months past have made a great change. The Judge will say that the more funerals we have among the old residents the better for the place - Everybody agrees with that idea.

This state will probably go Republican next year. And strange to say, I think a popular desire to restore those parts of the carpet bag constitution of '68 which were destroyed by Ku Klux legislation and the '75 Convention, will cause the change.
Remember me to the Judge and Lady - Truly Yours, Thomas B. Kerch
