Chicago, Sept. 15, 1887

Hon. Albion W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—

I find on careful investigation by correspondents and by agents on the ground that one Foster, who is running a Star Bureau in New York, is offering you throughout the West for $75 per night, not only in small towns but in the large cities in Kansas as well, thus rendering it impossible for us to do any work at higher price. I could place you at that price at Atchinson, Kan., but you want a date in January. It is somewhat embarrassing to send our agents who offer you for $100 and then have a letter thrust under your nose saying that you have been offered by other parties for $75. If you place your business exclusively in the hands of one responsible agent you would have better prices and a great deal more business. This is the plain English of it.

Please write as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

Henry L. Slayton,
