GEORGE L. LEWIS. ADELBERT NOOT.

Sept. 17-1889

Dear J. G. W. +

Yours rec'd, & I shall act accordingly, Mr. Matthews has been very patient but his faith has visibly decreased, I hope he will feel reassured,
'Bullous Iron' looks well; in The Express its namesake reads well, and I suppose it is but little changed, & I hope you will coin money from it, Mr. Matthews thinks 89, should go over your name, He thinks he has a right to ask that in view of delay and charges, what think you? I will send Robert's reply at once, The rips and ~~thin~~ tubes are quite well. All the o' rats!
With best wishes to yours and you - Truly - Adalbert Noot
